

Development Committee

This committee is composed of volunteers with related professional experience in the area of fundraising, public relations and marketing. The committee supports the administration in developing fundraising plans as well as implementing the strategies and tasks. Members work to organize and support activities and special events.