

Faith Relations Committee

This committee's responsibilities are to identify area faith communities, design a partnership program and build a faith-based coalition that will support the initiative of eliminating substandard and inadequate housing in our region and around the world.