

Family Selection Committee

This committee is responsible for choosing future Habitat homeowners. The committee works with local residents, neighborhood associations and churches in the area to create support for the organization and future partner families. The committee plans and conducts a series of orientations for prospective families. Committee activity is cyclical.