

Site Selection and Design Committee

This committee's responsibilities include site selection, land acquisition, home design and community impact issues. The committee is crucial in the ever-challenging efforts to locate land that allows Habitat to build homes using our basic design criteria. Volunteers with related professional experience as well as everyday homeowners are encouraged to get involved. This committee meets monthly or as needed.